Scotty,

Since we didn't discuss business yesterday, where do we stand with those = protocols? Do you have any clue or do you just want to discuss them = when you come into town next week?

How was the snow? Find any bunnies to help ease your frustra`   ü   p   P   s? It = sure is nice to be in a regular relationship where such things are so = easily resolved. Ha Ha. You missed an excellent dinner where Ayiana = (Ambers daughter) was the life of the party. Eight adults standing = around laughing at the kid (little niko is still to small to be much = fun- he's only 3 mo old). The twenty year old boys were also = entertained trying to figure out Ayiana's magic picture book. I still = think of them as boys even though they really are grown men now- makesp   ü   €   `   me feel old. Speaking of old- how is life at 30? Anyhow I hope I = really do get to babysit next week- Ayiana is so fun (most of the time).

See ya later H.B.,

s

Scotty,

Attached are the three protocols we tried to expand from you dirty one. = (I have had dirtier- ones on a yellow stick it note are always my = favorite!) Their are several questionable areas we need to clean up- = see red print in documents. If you know the answers jusP   ü   `   @   ange the = protocols to reflect the necessary information. If you need help = figuring things out give me a call and maybe together we can work it = out. We didn't bid them yet because there were so many holes. Just let = me know what you think.
